MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 16.-Indianapolis proved easy picking for the Brewers' here to-day in the opening game of the series, Milwaukee winning by a score of to 1. Not satisfied with making misplays, the Hoosiers began fighting amongst themselves, Captain Magoon getting into several arguments with Hogriever and McCreery.

Although the Brewers are credited with the first inning. The fielding of the visitors four tallies, they really did not deserve a single one of them. In the opening inning Schaefer reached home from second | Fox. 2... base on a hit to the pitcher, which Newlin | Maloney, rf. 4 was slow in throwing to the bag. Then | Coulter, If ... 4 again in the seventh, when Milwaukee | Weaver, c.... scored two more runs, Hogriever let a comparatively easy fly get away from him and Carr made a miserable throw to the plate in trying to catch Pennell. Carr did not have to toss the ball more than thirty feet, but the best he could do was to throw it | Minneapolis 0 0 6 0 0 1 0 0 *-7 on a bound to Heydon.

Newlin pitched splendid ball, Cantillon's men getting but one lone single in the first six innings. They added two more, however, in the seventh after the side should have been retired, while the two made in the eighth were both questionable, as they should have been handled by the infield-ers. A squad of ten men will be taken, including Captain Alfred Duggan and Ferd Murr, of the Manual Training High School. It is the desire of the local athletes to win the meet for Indianapolis, and, as the Shortridge team is weak in weight men and hurdlers, the two South Side stars were invited to accompany them on the trip. Eli Lilly, the blue and white hurdler, who had his knee hurt in the State meet Saturday, is still in a bad shape not yet recovered from the effects of his terrific sprint in the 220-yard dash Saturday. but it is thought that he will be in shape by next Saturday to meet Horace Taylor, the Louisville star. The team will hold trials in several events Wednesday to pick the team to go to Louisville.

Now that Coach Cutts has reinstated Jones, Palmer and Witt, who were suspended for smoking, it is probable that there will be a new shake-up in the team, and that Captain Cook will go to second base, Wilson to third, Palmer back to first, and Witt behind the bat. Rain interferred with practice to-day, but between showers the candidates managed to get in a little fielding drill with the above changes in the line-up. In addition to the two important baseball games Purdue will have another athletic event this week that is attracting attention throughout the State. On Saturday the second annual interscholastic track and field meet will be held on Stuart Field, bringing together the pick of Indiana high school athletes. Already more than 100 entries have been received from all
